

YOU ARE OFFICIALLY OLD!

YES, THE '90s ARE ALREADY RETRO WITH RHINO'S JULY 26 RELEASE OF WHATEVER: THE '90s POP & CULTURE BOX

LOS ANGELES-Bringing back the era of parachute-pant-rappers, grunge music's beginning, bedroom beatmakers, and the female rock rebellion, Rhino bridges the musical divides with the July 26 release of the definitive decade compilation, WHATEVER: THE '90s POP & CULTURE BOX.

Due in physical and virtual stores for a suggested retail price of $105.98, WHATEVER: THE '90s POP & CULTURE BOX doesn't miss a beat with a 7-CD, 130 song collection that fuses everything from pop-rap pioneer M.C. Hammer's "U Can't Touch This," to image-breaking rocker Sinéad O'Connor's breakthrough cover "Nothing Compares 2 U," to the bruising locomotive hooks of Helmet ("Unsung") and Pantera ("Walk"), to the sample-hugged atmospherics of Moby's "Natural Blues."

The first collection to present this decade's musical creation and evolution, WHATEVER includes radio regulars and chart-toppers Boyz II Men, Aaliyah, En Vogue, Collective Soul, Spin Doctors, Joan Osborne, Duran Duran, Hanson, Jewel, Kris Kross, Sarah McLachlan and more. Also featured are such genre changing artists and songs as rapper Queen Latifah with "Ladies First," the Red Hot Chili Peppers' rock hit "Under The Bridge," mainstream folk heroine Ani DiFranco's "Not A Pretty Girl," Twin City garage band Soul Asylum's hit "Runaway Train," and Busta Rhymes adding "Woo Hah!! Got You All In Check."

WHATEVER also rocks back to Lollapalooza's early pioneers Primus with "My Name Is Mud," Babes In Toyland's "Sweet 69," Luscious Jackson's hit "Naked Eye," Dinosaur Jr.'s "Start Choppin'," and The Flaming Lips' single "She Don't Use Jelly."

Mix in Brit-pop sensation, Oasis' chart-topping hit "Wonderwall," the smash hit series Friends theme song, "I'll Be There For You" by the Rembrandts, California's O.C. punks Social Distortion with "Ball And Chain," and the party-starting #1 hit "Baby Got Back" by Sir Mix-A-Lot to get a small dose of what the '90s WHATEVER box offers.

Following in the wacky packaging tradition of Rhino's previous limited edition Pop Culture boxes - smiley face shag carpet on Have A Nice Decade: The '70s Pop Culture Box and a raised rubber finish on Like, Omigod! The '80s Pop Culture Box, Totally - the '90s POP & CULTURE BOX boasts a clear plastic flat bag of coffee beans secured by a thermal sleeve bearing an array of zeitgeist-capturing faux corporate logos.

Inside, an extensive 84-page book includes a timeline, track-by-track notes, cultural commentary, photographs, and essays from The Chicago Sun-Times' Jim DeRogatis, Time Magazine's Joel Stein, Seattle based author Clark Humphrey, Brian Ives' concert re-counts, and an interview with Sub Pop's President and co-founder Jonathan Poneman.

So don't be ashamed to dig out your not-yet-dusty '90s attire, sit back and relive the decade that brought us all to the millennium with ever-evolving musical styles and memorable songs.
